Mizuhiki Kinpu Kanomusubi

The front knot of Mizuhiki is "口" and the backside knot is "十".
It comes from the kanji "叶（kanou）".
“叶” means to come true.
Please use it to celebrate somebody when their dreams or wishes come true.

Kanomusubi〔front〕

Kanomusubi〔back〕

Mizuhiki Kinpu Chirikake

“Chirikake” is a traditional process that creates a fine ring at the tip of Mizuhiki.
It has become rare because it takes time and labor.
A special "Chirikake Kinpu" that is gorgeous even though it is simple.
Please use it as a wedding celebration.

Chirikake

Mizuhiki Motoyui Genda × Shogado
Mizuhiki Kinpu

This kinpu is specially made by Genda and Shogado to preserve the traditional techniques of Kyoto.
Mizuhiki Motoyui Genda has a long history of making Kyoto-style ritual supplies.
They manufacture and sell traditional Mizuhiki to the Imperial Household Agency.

SHOGADO
and ginger

Shogado was established in 1964
and we continue to make Japanese stationery
to bring gentle warmth and luxury to everyday life.
We propose the new stationery brand " Ginger ".
The sense and beauty of Japan is the foundation of our products.
Traditional craftsmanship is formed over a long time from vast experience.
The modern design of ginger is the lifestyle of today.
The fusion of traditional craftsmanship and modern design creates Shogado.

Kurotani

Kurotani Washi Products

Kurotani Washi is famous for being completely handmade(Tesuki).
There are many steps in the delicate process of making Kurotani Washi.
Therefore, there is a limit to production. It is beautiful and strong.
The process of making Kurotani Washi has not changed for over 800 years.

Kurotani Washi is made from 100% mulberry.
Mulberry can fully grow in one year and is more sustainable than wood pulp.
For that reason, all our products are nice to the environment.

Kyo Uchiwa Aiba

The history begins in the 2nd year of the Genroku period(1689), when Chobei the 1st came to Kyoto from Oumi. Kyo Uchiwa Aiba began to specialize in the Gosho Uchiwa fan from Chobei the 7th. They have ever since been keeping the tradition of the Gosho Uchiwa fan and making Kyo Uchiwa fans.

Kurotani Washi

Kurotani Washi prospered by making washi paper in Ayabe of northern Kyoto. The history begins from around the year 1200. Today, pure handmade washi has become very rare in Japan. Kurotani Washi is used in the national treasure Katsura Imperial Villa, Kyoto Imperial Palace, the Japanese Embassy in Washington, etc. This washi is beautiful and tough. It is also artistic and practical.

ginger Kurotani
Uchiwa Fan

We use very thin Kurotani Washi.
The handle is made from fine wood (Toga).
We have two designs that come in two colors,
white(Sarashi)and off-white(Mizarashi).
Each Uchiwa Fan is handmade at Aiba.
Aiba has a history since 1689.

Business Card Holder

We use Momi washi.
Momi washi is made by carefully hand mixing very thick and strong washi paper for a long time.
There is a color selection of off-white（Mizarashi）, gray and Kurotani black.
Especially, Kurotani black is a deep black because of its long and complex process.

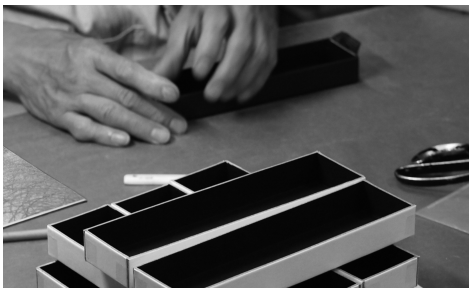
Yuzen

Yuzen Washi Products

Yuzen is a traditional dying method.
This method was originally used for the Kimono.
Yusen used on paper is Yusen Paper. It is handmade silk print.
There are over 10000 patterns of Yuzen paper.
We chose patterns and changed the colors to match our concept.
Our design is traditional meets modern.
We have products such as, Watoji Notebook, Watoji Memo, Shuincho Notebook, Bunko Box and Pencil Case.



Nishikawa Paper Industry

Nishikawa Paper Industry makes Shikishi, Tanzaku, Wahoncho and other washi products. They are traditional arts and crafts. The products are at the highest level. The craftsman's rich skills and experience can be seen especially in the procucts such as Wahoncho and Shuincho.

Shifuzome Kawai

An atelier of hand dying Yuzen paper in Kyoto. It was fouded in 1970. The process of kataokoshi (make layers), Iroawase (color blending), and suri (printing) are done all by hand. This needs great experience. Each layer of the process gives the paper a profound impression.
